Sir:

Enclosed herewith is a copy of the Certificate of Correction received in response to the Request filed December 12, 2006. As seen from the attached copy there is an extraneous "8" in the phrase "facilitating8" on page 2 of 2 of the Certificate of Correction. As this error was not in the Request for Certificate of Correction form no fees are believed due with this filing.

Respectfully submitted, said second fabric material being stitched on said first fabric material along edges of said stiffeners for facilitating positioning of said stiffeners;

a hardened resin infiltrated into said fabric materials, and wherein said stiffeners placed on said first fabric material are of metal.

REMARKS

This request for Certificate of Correction corrects a clerical error present in the claims.

As indicated on the last Response on February 1, 2006, issued claim 5 is corresponding to claim 9 in Applicants' response, and issued claim 14 is to claim 13 in Applicants' response. Comparing these claims, it is clearly understood that issued claim 5 comprises too much features and issued claim 14 comprises less features. More specifically, two features in issued claim 5 ("said second fabric material" and "a hardened resin" in last part) should be placed in issued claim 14, shown above.

It is respectfully submitted that the error is on the part of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Accordingly, this filing is made pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.322 (PTO mistake).

If, however, any fees are deemed necessary to invoke this correction, the Commissioner is authorized change any necessary fees to Deposit Account 02-4300.

Applicants looks forward to receipt of a Certificate of Correction in due course.

Respectfully submitted,
